General Information

Part 1 Identification of the person about whom Revenu Québec holds confidential information or documents

The term "person" refers to the person about whom Revenu Québec holds confidential information or documents. The person can be an individual, a deceased individual, an individual in business, a corporation, a partnership, a trust or an organization.

Part 2 Identification of the designated person

Part 2 is used to provide information about the designated person who is being granted an authorization or power of attorney (see the information regarding Part 4 for the definitions of authorization and power of attorney).

The term "designated person" refers to an individual (for example, a spouse) or a business (for example, an accounting firm). If the designated person is a business or a trust, be sure to enter, on lines 13a and 13b, the last name and first name of a person within the business or trust whom we can contact for more information.

If the designated person is a professional representative, he or she can access the person's file online. In this case, you must enter the designated person's professional representative number attributed by Revenu Québec (a letter followed by 6 digits) on line 16. Be sure to also enter the designated person's Québec enterprise number (NEQ) on line 10 or his or her identification number on line 10a. If you do not know the professional representative number, request it from the designated person.

Part 3 Information or documents and periods, taxation years or fiscal periods covered by the authorization or power of attorney

If you would like to grant a general authorization or power of attorney, check box 21 in section 3.1 and go to section 3.3.

However, if the authorization or power of attorney also applies to information or documents related to the Act to facilitate the payment of support, complete section 3.2.1, then go to section 3.3.

In addition, if the authorization or power of attorney applies to information or documents related to the shelter allowance program, check box 23 in section 3.2.2.

If you would like to grant a limited authorization or power of attorney, check one or more boxes in section 3.2.2 and provide any requested information.

You must specify the period(s), taxation year(s) or fiscal period(s) covered by the authorization or power of attorney in section 3.3. The period(s), taxation year(s) or fiscal period(s) can be in the past, present or future.

Support payments

If you complete section 3.2.1, you must enter the file numbers covered by the authorization or power of attorney and provide information about the taxation years covered in section 3.3.

Note that the authorization or power of attorney only covers support payment files that are in effect on the date the form is signed. If a support payment file comes into effect after that date, you must complete another copy of the form for this file.

Part 4 Authorization or power of attorney

Complete section 4.1 or 4.2, depending on whether this is an authorization or a power of attorney.

An authorization allows the designated person to consult confidential information and documents held by Revenu Québec that concern the person identified in Part 1, according to the options selected in Part 3.

A power of attorney not only gives the designated person access to such confidential information and documents, but also allows the designated person to act on the person's behalf in dealings with Revenu Québec. For example, the person can communicate with Revenu Québec regarding the information and documents or ask that changes be made to the person's tax file.

Note that the authorization or power of attorney is no longer valid where the person identified in Part 1 is deceased or found incapable of managing his or her affairs by the Superior Court of Québec. Where the person is found incompetent, his or her legal or authorized representative can designate the same person, or someone else, to act on the person's behalf.

Part 5 Signature

Note that this form will be returned to you if Part 5 is not signed.

In the case of an individual, this part must be signed by the individual or by the individual's legal or authorized representative, who may be a tutor, a curator, a mandatary designated by a mandate in case of incapacity homologated by a court, a liquidator of a succession (estate), a trustee or any other person duly authorized through a power of attorney. The legal or authorized representative will have to provide documents proving that he or she is authorized to sign documents on the person's behalf and to send Revenu Québec form LM-14-V, Information About a Representative.

If the person is a trust, a trustee must sign this part. If the person is a business, an authorized representative must sign this part. In the case of an individual in business, the individual must sign. In the case of a corporation, one of the officers (president, vice-president, secretary or treasurer) must sign. In the case of a partnership, one of the partners must sign. Note, however, that the authorized representative can be any other person who provides documents proving that he or she can sign for the business.

In the case of a corporation, if, in carrying out his or her mandate, a designated person wishes to sign a return, a certificate or any other document made by the corporation for the purposes of a fiscal law or regulations made under such a law, that person must be so authorized by a resolution of the board of directors of the corporation or by a unanimous agreement of the shareholders.

The authorization or power of attorney will take effect on the date it is signed and will remain valid indefinitely, unless a date is entered on line 52 or unless there are changes to be made to the information provided.

Note that if the designated person refuses to represent the person identified in Part 1, the designated person must so advise Revenu Québec in writing. In addition, under no circumstances may a designated person transfer the authorization or power of attorney to another person.

Appendices

If space is insufficient on this form, you must enclose extra sheets containing the applicable information. Make sure you clearly mark on each appendix which part of the form the information pertains to.

In addition, where the form must be signed by more than one legal or authorized representative, you must enclose an appendix containing each representative's name, signature and position, as well as the date of each signature.

Revocation

The person who granted an authorization to communicate information or documents or a power of attorney is responsible for revoking that authorization or power of attorney if the person, or his or her legal or authorized representative, deems that it is no longer necessary. To revoke an authorization or power of attorney, complete form MR-69.R-V, Revocation of an Authorization to Communicate Information or of a Power of Attorney. You must complete a separate copy of the form for each person with regard to whom you wish to revoke an authorization or power of attorney. To revoke an authorization or a power of attorney verbally and immediately, contact us. Keep in mind, however, that we may require written confirmation.
